

Fall Family Fun Outdoors Photo Contest

We invite you to send us digital photos of you and your family and friends enjoying state parks or reservoirs during October and November, 2007. Whether you're hiking, fishing, biking, hunting, enjoying the inns, attending a program or special event or just relaxing by the campfire, your pictures will help show other Hoosiers that Indiana's state parks and reservoirs are great places to exercise, relax and renew spirits!

Contest Rules

- Photos can be entered in one of two age categories: those taken by children 12 and under and those taken by anyone age 13 or older.
- Photos must be taken at an Indiana state park or reservoir.
- Photo subjects include one or more people enjoying the outdoors at an Indiana state park or reservoir during the months of October and November, 2007. Activities can include fishing, hiking, family gatherings or activities in a state park inn, attending programs, hunting, geocaching, birding, camping or any other legal activity at an Indiana state park or reservoir.
- Submit digital photos only. For the potential to have your image used in any print publication, send images that are at least 300 pixels per inch resolution, a minimum dimension of 5 x 7 inches, in JPEG format and on a CD. Submission of less than 300 ppi may limit potential use to the DNR Web site.
- Submit no more than three photos per photographer.
- Each photographer must complete the photography agreement and return it with his/her images.
- Photo entries must be postmarked by November 30, 2007.
- The winning images will appear on the Healthy Parks-Healthy People page on the DNR website (www.dnr.in.gov/healthy) and publishable images will be used throughout 2008 on the page. Winning entries will also be displayed in Dick's Sporting Goods Stores and at Indiana State Park Inns.
- DNR employees and their families may submit photos, but they are not eligible for any prizes.
